

Dietrich Bonhoeffer Centre London

<http://dbcl.jimdo.com/>

The London Bonhoeffer Colloquium

June 15th 2013: 2.00pm – 6.00pm at the Dietrich Bonhoeffer Kirche, Dacres Rd, London SE23

The Dietrich Bonhoeffer Centre London was founded with the Dietrich Bonhoeffer Day on February 2nd 2013, at the London church where Bonhoeffer served a pastorate between 1933 and 1935. The Centre exists to celebrate and perpetuate the legacy of this important theologian and Christian witness.

The Centre is pleased to announce this one-day colloquium with an academic focus, in order to pursue the celebration and perpetuation of Bonhoeffer's legacy in the context of contemporary postgraduate study in the United Kingdom, where Bonhoeffer is currently being given much attention by the Academy.

The colloquium will involve short-papers from postgraduate students on a range of topics related to Bonhoeffer studies. (Call for papers below).

All interested parties are very welcome. Please register beforehand by e-mailing:

londonbonhoeffer@gmail.com

Dietrich Bonhoeffer Centre London

<http://dbcl.jimdo.com/>

The London Bonhoeffer Colloquium

Call for Papers

The London Bonhoeffer Colloquium welcomes abstracts (of 200 words) for prospective 25 minute papers. Abstracts are welcome on all topics related to Bonhoeffer studies, proposals on any Bonhoeffer-related issue will be considered. Papers with a constructive-theological and contemporary focus will be particularly welcome. Topics which would be especially appropriate for this colloquium include: matters related to Bonhoeffer's time in London; Bonhoeffer and Anglo-German relations; Bonhoeffer reception in the UK; Issues in Bonhoeffer studies relevant to contemporary society (inter-religious dialogue, race-relations, etc); and the perpetuation of Bonhoeffer's legacy in areas such as pacifism and ecumenism.

Please e-mail proposals to: londonbonhoeffer@gmail.com

The deadline for consideration is April 15th 2013